The examiner has considered the IDS filed on 2/28/06.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 2, 4, 6, 8, 14, 16, 18, and 20-24 are allowed as the prior art does not teach or suggest the applicant's invention. The amended claim language distinguishes the application's invention over the references that accompanied the Office Action (mailed 3/8/06). Claims 2, 4, 14, 16, 18, and 20 teach an apparatus for a magnetic tape servo writer. Regarding claims 2, 4, and 14, the distinguishing elements of the claims teach a DC demagnetizing head that magnetizes at least a servo band of the magnetic tape in one direction of longitudinal directions thereof; a servo write head that is provided at a downstream side of a magnetic tape travel direction of the DC demagnetizing head, magnetizes the servo band in a reverse direction, and writes a servo signal; and a disc spring for pushing a guide in lateral directions of said magnetic tape, and the guide is provided between the DC demagnetizing head and the servo write head, and one end of the disc spring is attached to the guide, and the other end of the disc spring is attached to a support member for connecting the DC demagnetizing head and the servo write head so as to be integrally configured. Regarding claims 16, 18, and 20, the distinguishing elements of the claims teach a DC demagnetizing head that magnetizes at least a servo band of the magnetic tape in one direction of longitudinal directions thereof; a servo write head that is provided at a downstream side of a magnetic tape travel direction of the DC demagnetizing head, and magnetizes the servo band in a reverse direction, and writes a servo signal; and a guide is provided between the DC demagnetizing head and the servo write head, wherein the guide pushes both side edges of the magnetic tape oscillating in lateral directions with energizing force of 0.0049 to 0.00784 N.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
